General English 2 生活英語 A 組
(Intermediate) 參考級數: 多益 550-650
(Oct - Dec 2022)

Frequency and duration: 10 x two-hour classes

Course Aim

The aim of the General English class is to provide a stress-free environment in which students can learn English on a variety of topics. Particular emphasis is placed on students having the opportunity to speak as much as possible. Therefore, students will be encouraged to give their opinions on the different topics covered and share their life experience during each class.

Course Description

General English 2 aims to provide students with suitable vocabulary to enable them to discuss different topics. It also presents ideas for students to discuss, which will improve their critical thinking skills. Different areas of grammar are also introduced during the course and opportunities to practice these are provided through listening and written exercises.

Class Materials

The chosen book for this course is English for the 21st Century (Intermediate level) by Jake Hughes and Fiona Scott-Barrett. The book was written for Caves Books in association with Garnet Education. It follows a modular approach with each unit covering a separate topic.

The book has eight units and the first four were covered in the General English I course. This course covers the final four units and is a continuation of the General English 1 course.

Teaching Medium

Students will attend the online sessions with their teacher.
